

HALLOWEEN

Halloween is always on October 31. It is a tradition in most English speaking countries. Many families decorate their houses. Most have Jack-o'-lanterns, which are carved pumpkins with candles inside.

People put on spooky or fun costumes for Halloween, and children go "trick-or-treating". This means that they ring the doorbell at each house, and shout "trick or treat" when the door opens. They hope to get lots of candy.

It's no wonder that many children think this is the best tradition of the year.

Ella and Lisa go trick-or-treating

Ella: Mom, does Sam have to go trick-or-treating with us? Lisa and I are big now. We are both 8 years old!

Mom: Yes, you are big girls, but not big enough to go out on your own. It is dark and there are people in scary costumes.

Ella: Mom! We're not scared of the dark or the scary costumes. We just want candy!

Mom: That may be true, but Sam is still going with you.

Ella: He doesn't even have a costume. It will look silly with me as a witch, Lisa as a zombie, and Sam as Sam.

Mom: I'll make him a ghost costume with this old white sheet. Will that work?

Ella: I guess so.

Mom: You must stay in our neighborhood, and I don't want you going to any houses without Sam.

Ella: Okay. How long can we go trick-or-treating?

Mom: I would like you to be home by 8:30. It's a school night, and you have to get up early tomorrow morning.

Ella: Mom, 9:00 isn't too late. We have a lot of houses to go to.

Mom: Okay then. Make sure you are home by 9:00. Have fun and try not to eat all the candy. Save some for me.

Attention

Halloween firas i många engelskspråkiga länder i världen. Det är en av barnens favorit-högtider då de får klä ut sig och äta en massa godis. I denna text finns först en kort faktatext om Halloween. Sedan följer en dialog mellan Ella och hennes mamma. Ella och hennes vän Lisa vill gå ut på Halloween och göra "bus eller godis".

I denna text kan eleverna lyssna lite extra på orden: just, costume, witch, zombie och neighborhood.

Words and expressions

Jack-o'-lantern – En tradition vid Halloween är att gröpa ur en pumpa, skära ut ett ansikte och tända ljus i pumpan så att den lyser upp mörkret. Denna pumpa kallas för Jack-o'-lantern.

Trick-or-treat – på svenska "bus eller godis". Barn klär ut sig och knackar dör. När någon öppnar säger de "trick or treat". Om man inte har godis att ge så kan det bli bus.
